
24-7 PRAYER FOR REVIVAL
12-18 OCTOBER 2026

Behind human trafficking are people created in God's image whose freedom and dignity have been stolen. Yet no darkness is hidden from Jesus. He sees every captive and hears every cry.

Join us this week in prayer, asking the Lord to expose what is hidden, break chains, strengthen those pursuing justice, restore survivors and protect the vulnerable.

MONDAY 12 OCTOBER 2026
DECEPTIVE RECRUITMENT
A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself, but the simple pass on and are punished. (Proverbs 22:3).

Appa Rao accepted the promise of honest work in India but became trapped in bonded labour for 22 years without wages. In 2025, authorities rescued him and reunited him with his daughter. READ MORE

Globally, migrant workers face three times the risk of forced labour than other workers.

Let us pray
- Ask the Holy Spirit to expose deceptive recruitment and give jobseekers discernment to recognise danger and find safe work.
- Pray for employers and recruiters to fear the Lord and to reject exploitation.
- Cry out to Jesus for those in forced labour, asking Him to bring freedom, safety, restoration and renewed hope to survivors.

TUESDAY 13 OCTOBER 2026
SEX TRAFFICKING
The LORD is near to those who have a broken heart, and saves such as have a contrite spirit. (Psalm 34:18).

Samara entered what seemed a promising relationship, but her trust was manipulated and she was trafficked across Romania and the UK. With support, she later helped bring her traffickers to justice and found strength in her faith. READ MORE

An estimated 6.3 million people are trapped in forced commercial sexual exploitation globally.

Let us pray

- Ask Jesus to give young people discernment in relationships and expose manipulation disguised as love.
- Ask the Holy Spirit to awaken families and communities to warning signs and give them courage to protect those at risk.
- Pray for Jesus to draw near to trafficking survivors, heal wounded hearts, restore dignity and surround them with trustworthy relationships and His unfailing love.

WEDNESDAY 14 OCTOBER 2026
ONLINE EXPLOITATION OF CHILDREN

"Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin..." (Matthew 18:6).

Aaron was only two when authorities rescued him and other children from online exploitation in the Philippines. IJM (International Justice Mission) supported the investigation, and Aaron received specialised foster care. READ MORE

In 2022, an estimated 1 in 100 children in the Philippines experienced online sexual exploitation.

Let us pray

- Ask the Lord Jesus to shield vulnerable children and give parents and caregivers wisdom to recognise dangers in digital spaces.
- Ask the Lord to strengthen investigators, prosecutors and technology providers to expose exploitation and establish effective safeguards.
- Pray for rescued children to find loving, trustworthy care and for Jesus to restore their security, dignity, hope and freedom.

THURSDAY 15 OCTOBER 2026
DOMESTIC SERVITUDE

Open your mouth for the speechless, in the cause of all who are appointed to die. (Proverbs 31:8).

Agreement left her home after relatives promised her an education in the city. Instead, she was confined to the house and forced into domestic servitude. READ MORE

About 27.6 million people worldwide are trapped in forced labour.

Let us pray

- Ask the Holy Spirit to bring hidden exploitation into the light and awaken communities to recognise those suffering behind closed doors.
- Pray for neighbours, churches and authorities to act courageously to bring protection and freedom.
- Ask Jesus to restore survivors' dignity, rebuild what captivity has stolen and surround them with safe communities.

FRIDAY 16 OCTOBER 2026
DEBT BONDAGE
The wicked borrows and does not repay, but the righteous shows mercy and gives. (Psalm 37:21).

A teenager, Thenmoyi, and her family were trapped at a South Asian brick kiln through false, escalating debt. Today she leads a survivor network of more than 900 members. READ MORE

Globally, 27.6 million people remain in forced labour.

Let us pray
- Ask the Lord to expose unjust systems that exploit poverty and debt, and to establish justice for vulnerable workers and families.
- Pray for doors of provision and sustainable livelihoods to open, protecting struggling families from deceptive and exploitative offers.
- Ask the Holy Spirit to strengthen survivors, using their restored lives to inspire others and break exploitation cycles.

SATURDAY 17 OCTOBER 2026
CHILD LABOUR TRAFFICKING
Defend the poor and fatherless; do justice to the afflicted and needy. (Psalm 82:3).

Foli's grandparents believed a relative would care for him. Instead, he was trafficked into Ghana's fishing industry on Lake Volta. READ MORE

Thousands of children are exploited in fishing on Lake Volta; some work up to 18 hours daily.

Let us pray
- Ask Jesus to protect children whose poverty or circumstances make them vulnerable to exploitation.
- Pray for families to receive provision and opportunities so children can remain safely at home, receive an education and enjoy their childhood.
- Ask the Lord to heal rescued children, reveal their worth in His sight and lead them into freedom, hope and His purposes for their lives.

SUNDAY 18 OCTOBER 2026
FORCED CRIMINALITY
"And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:32).

As a vulnerable child, Sosa was offered belonging and protection, but was later forced into crime before discovering that he was a victim of human trafficking. READ MORE

IJM reports victims may be forced into 20-hour online scams.

Let us pray
- Ask the Spirit of Truth to expose deceptive recruitment and hidden criminal networks, bringing darkness into the light.
- Pray for authorities across nations to work together effectively, dismantle trafficking networks and bring captives to freedom.
- Ask Jesus to remove survivors' shame, restore their dignity and provide honest work as they rebuild their lives in freedom.
