

Throughout Scripture, God reveals His deep love for cities. He redeems places marked by brokenness, injustice and darkness. From Nineveh to Jerusalem, and from the Early Church in Antioch, He demonstrates His desire to transform communities through His presence. A redeemed city is not defined by prosperity alone but by a community where God's Kingdom is reflected in everyday life.

During this week, we will pray for the cities in which we live, asking the Lord to reveal His glory, transform lives and establish His Kingdom in every sphere of society. As we intercede for our own communities, let us also lift up cities where people have little or no opportunity to hear the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Each day, we will pray for five cities that form part of the 110 Cities initiative, many of which have fewer than ten percent of the population identifying as Christian and contain large unreached populations. To learn more about these unreached cities and how to pray for them, visit 110 Cities.

May the Holy Spirit raise bold witnesses, strengthen His Church, open hearts to the Gospel and establish Christ-centred communities.
